When visitors leave comments on the site, we collect the data shown in the comments form, as well as the visitor's IP address and browser user agent string to aid spam detection. Any quotes by residents, family members or facility staff on this website or in our printed materials are documented by name; our files hold signed releases by those who have contributed remarks.

LFWF, it's parent entity hope4hearts, and Larry and Nancy Kuch do not claim—and cannot be held responsible—that every resident who reads the manual will be helped, empowered or even educated; the value of the manual is determined by the condition and situation of each reader.

Terms and Conditions Statement – Facilities hiring us to customize a manual for their community are responsible to proof-read the final draft prior to printing and assume full responsibility for errors, omissions or inaccuracies in their manual. Should said errors, omissions or inaccuracies require a replacement printing with corrections, the financial cost will be the responsibility of the facility. Payment for additional time required of the Kuchs beyond what is stated in the contract signed by the facility administrator is the responsibility of the facility at the rate stated in the signed contract.
